

PRESS RELEASE

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

In his debut book, From Meth to Life – one cell at a time, Jamie Nash shares his miraculous deliverance from a 17-year meth addiction and his journey back to God through his incarceration in the Illinois penal system.

Jamie Nash was released from prison in Illinois for meth and gun possession charges on February 18, 2009. His meth use began in 1988 and ended at his sentence hearing in 2005. Delivered miraculously from 17 years of meth use, Jamie Nash is in the 2% of former meth users who have not again succumbed to its addicting death grip. He tells his story in his book, From Meth to Life – one cell at a time, available for sale on his website or any retail bookseller*.

Now Jamie speaks at churches and conferences to educate those who need to understand the mind of the addict and those incarcerated for such crimes. Pastors, ministers, parents and loved ones of addicts are encouraged to hear Jamie's priceless message of hope and his 5 Steps to Freedom.

Schedule Jamie to conduct his conference: Full Pardon for Pros & Cons – How to Minister to Prodigals and Convicts at your location by calling: 641-295-1005.

BOOK ORDERING & SCHEDULING

TITLE: From Meth to Life – one cell at a time (JNash Books, paperback, 226 pages)

ISBN#: 978-0-615-35681-5

PURCHASE: Order online through his website: www.jnashministries.com or through your local retail bookseller (provide the ISBN# listed above to your retailer).

SCHEDULE: To schedule Jamie to speak to your church or group, contact him through his ministry website: www.jnashministries.org or call 641-295-1005.

OPTIONAL CONFERENCE SCHEDULE:

Day 1 – How to Minister to Convicts & Addicts (for pastors & ministers)

Day 2 – Hope for Your Prodigal (for parents and loved ones + worship time)

Day 3 – Five Steps to Freedom, Physical & Spiritual (open session + worship time)